NOVEMBER 9TH IN WORLD'S HISTORY

2348 B. C.

The great flood began, according to Polyhistor, from Berosus, upon the 15th, or the ides of the Assyrian month Doesia, agreeing with this day. This event was prefigured to the patriarch in a vision, when the deity enjoined him to commit to writing a history of all things, which he was to bury in the city of the sun. The same uninspired authority informs us that Noah was the tenth king of the Chaldea and that he reigned 18 sari.

Argal returned to Virginia from his expedition against the French settlements in Acadia. At St. Savior he broke in pieces the cross which the Jesuits had erected, and set up another inscribed with the name of the king of England; at St. Croix he destroyed all the remains of De Monts' settlement; at Port Royal the entire settlement was reduced to ashes in the short space of two hours.

The Atlantic Coast Line has awarded another contract to the South Baltimere Steel Car Foundry Company for 550 box cars of standard type. This is the second contract placed with the above-named firm within the past few months, and the total cost of the equipment will be nearly $1,000,00. The new cars are to be of $6,000 pounds capacity and are to be equipmed with all modern appliances. The order is to be filled at the earliest possible time. The new cars of the first order are now being delivered to the Coast Line.—Leonard's Railroad News.

The most profitable railroads in the world, in proportion to their size and cost, are the Duluth and Iron Range and the Duluth Mesaha and Northern, both owned by the United States Steel Corporation. In the past fiscal year they earned dividends of about 150 per cent, each on the common stock, the former paying $4,503,000 in dividends and the latter 81.785,750. The Duluth and Iron Range was operated for 45.91 per cent, of its earnings. After paying dividends on early four millions the Duluth, Mesaba and Northern had in its treasury at the close of the past fiscal year a surplus of

A sentleman residing near the crossing of Franklin Street and the Roseneath road reports an instance of what he regards as indiscretion on the part of parents in allowing their children too much liberty.

As a concrete instance of just what impropriety he refers to this gentleman reisted the following incident: A few days age a vehicle driven by a colored youth and containing three young white misses, signd about fourteen, twelve and ten years old, which was being driven near that point, was stopped in the road in full view of four or five persons, while the megro driver produced tobacco and cigarette papers, rolled three degrettes and in them. Thereafter he handed one of the lighted of garettes to each of the young girls and the vehicle drove away with each girl puffing a digarette.

He reported the matter, thinking that it might suffice to make parents a bit more vigilant and careful in their supervision of their young daughters. He did

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urre people at this season of the Year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy a hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should heal the kebout huying it in preference to any other.
